We walk the talk. All of our services embed Universal Design for Learning and an anti-racist lens.

We strengthen inclusive teaching & leadership practices so every student thrives.

WHY WE DO IT

- Increase student engagement, learning, & academic achievement
- Address barriers faced by historically marginalized students
- Increase teacher retention at all career stages

"Alexis & Erin hit on each & every one of our targets. This is professional development at its best!"
--Reading Resource Teacher

"Erin's individualized feedback has been so helpful & is always full of nuggets that I can apply beginning the next day."

WHAT OUR CLIENTS SAY

"My coach was able to pinpoint my areas of growth, & she stopped to celebrate the areas in which I was thriving. It modeled the leader I want to be for my staff."
--Director of Curriculum

"It was great to see all of our staff deeply engaged in your presentation from beginning to end."
--Head of School

WHO WE ARE

Alexis Filippini, PhD
FOUNDER and CEO

Dr. Filippini applies her proactive, strengths-based approach as a consultant, coach, & speaker (a "freelance professor") to bring equity & joy into her work with individuals & with systems. Alexis, a former professor of special education, is a reading specialist & executive director of Words in the Wild, a non-profit committed to literacy education.

Erin Pollack, MFA
SENIOR CONSULTANT

Erin's interdisciplinary approach to capacity building supports both new & veteran teachers alike. Drawing from over 25 years of experience as a 6-12 classroom teacher, school administrator, & instructional coach, Erin specializes in collaboratively identifying the values & beliefs that make up a pedagogical philosophy. A National School Reform Faculty Certified Coach, she empowers educators and students with a sense of purpose.
